Section 6: Declaration of Consent

The Applicant agrees that Intertek will list the certification information i.e. company name, registration number, certificate number, date of certification, and expiry date of the certificate, etc. on the certification directory which will be posted on the website for GSV certification.

The goal of the Global Security Verification (GSV) Program is to help the foreign manufacturing and export community eliminate redundant inspections. Manufacturers that voluntarily choose to participate in GSV Program agree to an on-site independent security inspection, to measure and verify how well their security practices meet the standards outlined by international import security requirements. By signature below, the Applicant authorizes Intertek to share the security audit results with organizations the Applicant currently or plans to produce merchandise for sale, as evidence of accomplishing supply chain security obligations.

If the Applicant is not the Physical Facility where the verification takes place, the Applicant agrees that Intertek to issue the GSV report and certificate to the above Physical Facility.

Section 7: Confirmation by Customer

Our service is subject to our Terms & Conditions of Business. Details are separately attached.

Please make sure the factory name and address in the application form is applicable to list in the certificate. Otherwise an extra cost of USD30 will be charged for any request of amendment on certificate.

 The Physical Facility is responsible for all such fees and incurred expenses as noted as follows: Cancellations or rescheduling requested more than 2 business days & within 5 business days before the committed audit window will be liable for 50% of the full audit charge. If notice of cancellation or rescheduling of a monitoring visit is requested with less than 48 hours notice of the scheduled audit date, the full audit fee is charged. In case of denied access during the day of the audit, the full audit fee and traveling expense is charged and non-refundable.

 Normally, the GSV certificate would be valid for 12 months. For more details, please contact our GSV Coordinator.
