

Intertek Seafood Services

Your Challenges

The seafood trading business is mainly comprised of frozen exports of fishes, cephalopods, and crustaceans to name a few. With seafood marked as highly perishable, it is imperative that these items are packaged and stored properly in order to comply with the standards identified for exporting the cargo.

Our Solutions

Intertek, with over 1,000 laboratories and offices in over 100 countries around the world, can assist you with your seafood needs through:
