Trading with Mexico

Helping you comply with export and import requirements

The Republic of Mexico requires that virtually all imports comply with the Certification of Country of Origin (CCO) and be issued with a Constancia de Verificación (CDV).

Intertek provides an efficient and rapid turnaround of any inspection request, ensuring shipments encounter minimal delay before they can be dispatched and that the necessary duty and clearance documents will be available upon arrival in Mexico.

APPROVED

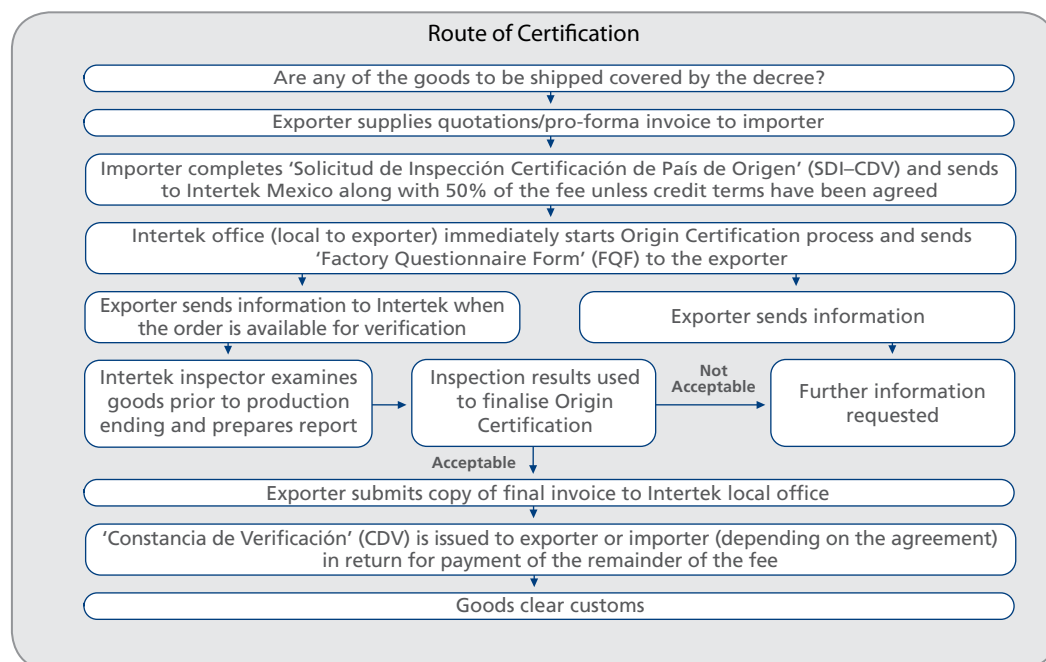

The requirements for Mexico include:

Products are subject to Certification of Country of Origin inspection only if they are of certain tariff codes and originate in countries that don't belong to the World Trade Organisation (WTO).

These products include, but are not limited to:

- Clothes
- Textiles
- Shoes
