Higher Minimum Wages Rolling Across Asia

Ask any Asia-based exporter today what their biggest headache is and they'll tell you it's the wave of rising wages surging across the region. And those increases are coming not just from the usual suspects -- labor demands and shortages -- but also from new government-mandated minimum wage levels. (Read more)

Don't Count Brazil out Just Yet

To paraphrase the iconic 19th century American author Mark Twain, reports of Brazil's demise appear to have been greatly exaggerated. Better than expected results now being reported for the fourth quarter of 2013 paint a somewhat more encouraging picture than the dour landscape many skeptics had expected. (Read more)
