

MARK PARRY

Technical Director, Intertek Pharmaceutical Services • Intertek Melbourn, Saxon Way, Melbourn, Hertfordshire, SG8 6DN, United Kingdom

PHOTO

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Mark has nearly 20 years' experience working within the pharmaceutical analysis and formulation development industry, with a particular focus on OINDPs. Mostly working in the pre-approval stages, Mark's background includes extensive experience with product and formulation development for novel and generic products, as well as method development and validation, stability studies, pharmaceutical development activities, and clinical trial manufacturing for a wide range of clients.

EXPERIENCE

EDUCATION

MSci Natural Sciences
(Chemistry) • 2002 •
University of Cambridge, UK

BA Natural Sciences • 2001 •
University of Cambridge, UK

MEMBERSHIPS

MRSC

Technical Director • Intertek Melbourn • 2012 - present

Joined Intertek Melbourn as the Production and Technical Projects Manager in 2012, becoming part of the senior management team as Technical Director in 2016. Responsibilities include leading the technical growth and commercial development of the business including a key role providing technical input and consultancy for client projects throughout their lifecycle.

Analytical Project Manager • Melbourn Scientific Limited • 2002 - 2012

Held various positions at Melbourn Scientific from Analyst to Team Leader progressing to Analytical Projects Manager from 2010. Provided support and supervision for the formulation development, and method development and validation teams to ensure client projects were developed and delivered effectively.

